CHAPTER: 13

DEFICIENCY NOTICE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to the automatic dismissal provisions set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 521(i), if: (1) you are an individual debtor or joint debtors, (2) you filed a voluntary case under chapter 7 or 13, (3) you fail to cure those deficiencies identified by an asterisk [*] below, and (4) the Court does not grant an extension of time or order otherwise, your case may be dismissed without further notice on or after the forty-sixth (46th) day following the commencement of the case.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that nothing herein modifies the deadline by which any document must be filed under the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code or Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, or implies that the information contained in any filed document is adequate or sufficient. Additionally, the failure to file any required document by such deadline may be cause for the dismissal or conversion of your case prior to the forty-sixth (46th) day following the commencement of the case.

The current deficiencies in your case are listed below. If an asterisk [*] appears before a document listed below, the document is a section 521(a)(1) requirement that, if not filed, would subject your case to the automatic dismissal provisions (referred to in the first paragraph above).
